The Light English stallion, DION,

WHICH was imported from London in the fall of 1801, by the late John Hoopes esq. of the Bowling Green, and is remarkable for his fine coat; he was bred by W. Garforth esq. of Yorkshire, and is undoubtedly a horse of as fine blood as any in England; he was a good racer, and beat several of the best horses in that kingdom. He won a sweepstake at York August meeting, nine subscribers, 50 guineas each, beating Mr. Winworth's colt by Eclipse, Lord Fitz William's bay colt by Walnut, Mr. Wilton's colt by Eclipse, Mr. Pierie's bay colt by Spadille, Sir C. Turner's colt by Eclipse. In 1800 he won the stand plate at York, for all ages, beating the famous male Jonah. The same year he run over the York course (4 miles) with Hambletonian, for the great subscription, and although the greatest exertion was made by the rider of Hambletonian, yet he beat Dion only the neck, and actually refused to run with him for the gold cup at Doncaster, a few days after, which Dion won with the greatest ease, beating Lord Darlington's bay colt Hap-Hazzard by Sir Peter Teazle, Lord Fitz William's brown filly Fanny, by do. Sir Harry Vane Tempel's bay colt by Walnut. Dion at another time beat Mr. Cooklin's Sir Harry, and Sir Thomas Galcoigne's Timothy, and several other horses of high repute, and was considered a horse of great speed and bottom, for his racing (in almost every instance) was 4 miles.

DION, now rising 11 years old, full fifteen hands two inches and a half high, a fine bay, with great strength and beauty, and has probably the best feet, legs, back and quarters that were ever combined in one horse; Stands this season (which will commence the 20th of March and end the first of August) at Madison court house, and be let to mares at 12 dollars the single leap, paid in hand, 24 dollars the season (four dollars of which will be remitted if paid by the 20th of December next) 40 dollars to insure a mare with foal, and one dollar to the groom in every instance, paid when the mare is covered. Good beefsteers on foot, weighing not less than 400 delivered the first week in August, good fat pork on foot, delivered the 1st week in October; inspected crop tobacco, delivered at any ware house on the Kentucky river, and merchantable hemp, delivered either at Madison court house or Lexington by the 20th of December, will be received in payment, at the cash market price when delivered—a promissory attested note for 24 dollars the season, and 40 for insurance must be sent with the mares—should those mares insure not prove with foal, and the property not altered, the money will be returned. Good pasturage found gratis for mares coming from more than 12 miles distance, and those gentlemen who wish their mares fed, may have it done at three shillings per week.

Both the horse and mares will be under the direction of E. Faulkner and Henry Banton.

Wm. T. BANTON.

PEDIGREE.

DION was bred by W. Garforth esq. and was got by Spadille, one of the best sons of Highflyer; his dam Faith by Paulet, a grandson of the Godolphin Arabian; his grand dam, the famous Atalanta, by Old Matchem, out of Lads of the Mill, Oroonok, Old Traveller, sister to Clark's Lads of the Mill, Mr. Holme's Mifs Makelefs, by Grey Hound; Old Partner, Woodcock, dam of Lambton, Mifs Doe, Croft's Bay Barb, grand dam of the Ancafter Starling, Makelefs, Demona's dam, Brimmer, Dicky Piermon, son of Dodsworth, out of the Burton Barb mare. This pedigree was taken from the general stud book of England.

JOHN W. HUNT.

Lexington April 1st, 1806.

ARRA KOOKER, is a beautiful bay, with black legs, mane, and tail; full sixteen hands high, and for figure, strength, elegance, movement and bone, is surpassed by no horse on the continent—As to his colts must refer you to Maj. James Heard of Winchester, Virginia, who is at present in this place, and to Mr. Robert Barr, who lives near this place, and whose certificates are annexed to this advertisement.

I DO hereby certify, that I have bred a colt by ARRA KOOKER, and think it extremely large and elegant, with remarkable fine limbs—The appearance of it has induced me to enter it in a sweep stake of 500 dollars—Likewise have seen a considerable number, which are promising—He is supposed to be a sure foal getter. Given under my hand this 10th day of April, 1806.

James Heard.

Danl. Bradford.

I do certify that whilst I was in New-Town, in the Fall and Winter of 1803, I saw several of ARRA KOOKER's colts, they were rising 2 and three years old, they promised to be very fine, and during my stay in that part of the country, I visited Penny-Town, in New-Jersey, where ARRA KOOKER had stood, and general report spoke highly of him as a sure and good foal getter.

Robert Barr.

Lexington March 26th, 1806.

ARRA KOOKER was imported from England by Dr. Tate, 1798. Is a beautiful bay, with black legs, mane and tail; full sixteen hands high; a lofty elegant figure, with a great proportion of bone & strength and more will; he is from the pure turf blood, he is from the best line of horses in England.

ARRA KOOKER was got by the celebrated running horse Drone (who won 25 Kings plates, Jockey club plates, and matches, to the amount of 5000 guineas) his grand sire was Herod, out of Lilly; his great grand sire was Blank, the sire of Eclipse—his dam was Mr. Dodsworth's Chadsworth mare, by Chadsworth, a son of Blank's, (dam of Abba Thule) his grand dam by Engineer, his great grand dam by Wilson's Arabian, his great great grand dam by Hutton's Spot, his great great great grand dam by Mogul, great great great grand dam by Crab, Bay Bolton, Curwin's Barb, Spot White leg'd Lather barb, &c. &c.

ARRA KOOKER when three years old won a sweep stake of 100 guineas, two miles, five horses started at New-Castle on Time and 50 guineas Northallerton; at four years old he walked over the course for 100 guineas at New-Castle on Time—no four year old would enter against him the four mile heats, (you may in the racing calendar see) in consequence of an injury in his leg, received in running, he was taken out of training; but of which he is now perfectly recovered and free from blemish.

I certify that the bright bay horse ARRA KOOKER, this day sold by me to Dr. James Tate, of Philadelphia, North America; was bred by Mathew Dodsworth, Esq. of Crick Hall Yorkshire; that he was got by the running horse Drone out of Abba Thule's dam, for whose pedigree reference may be had to the Stud Book, &c. &c. Given under my hand and seal, at the city of York, this 25th day of August, 1797.

IV. His majesty the Emperor of Germany and Austria, renounces, as well for himself as for his heirs and successors, that part of the States of the Republic of Venice, ceded to him by the treaties of Campo-Formio and Luneville, which shall be united in perpetuity to the kingdom of Italy.

V. His majesty the Emperor of Germany and Austria, acknowledges his majesty the Emperor of the French as king of Italy; but it is agreed, that in conformity with the declaration made by his majesty the Emperor of the French, at the moment when he took the crown, that as soon as the parties named in that declaration, shall have fulfilled the conditions therein expressed, the crowns of France and Italy shall be separated forever, and cannot in any case, be united on the same head. His majesty the Emperor of Germany binds himself to acknowledge, on the separation, the successor the Emperor of the French shall appoint to himself as king of Italy.

Ten days after the said exchange, the French and the troops of the allies of France, shall evacuate Moravia, Bohemia, the Viertel Unter, Viennar Wald, the Viertel Unter, Manhartsberg, Hungary, and the whole of Styria. In the ten following days they shall evacuate the Viertel Viennar Wald, and the Viertel Ober Manhartsberg; and finally, in the space of two months from the exchange of the ratifications, the French troops, and the troops of the allies of France, shall evacuate the whole of the hereditary States of his majesty the emperor of Germany and of Austria, with the exception of the place of Baunau, which shall remain for one month at the disposal of his majesty the emperor of the French, king of Italy, as a place of depot for the sick and for the artillery.

They will determine by a mutual agreement the kind and nature of the objects, which being the property of the emperor of Germany and of Austria, are consequently to remain at his disposal. They will agree either on the Kingdom of Italy, of the objects above mentioned, or their exchange for an equivalent quantity of artillery, or other objects of the same or of a different nature, which shall have been left by the French armies in the hereditary States.

Every facility and every assistance shall be given to the Austrian troops, and to the civil and military administrations, to return into the Austrian States by the most convenient and sure way; as well as to the conveyance of the Imperial artillery, the naval and military magazines, and other objects which are not comprehended in the stipulations of sale or exchange which may be made.

"DEAR SIR;

"When I had last the pleasure of seeing you, I promised that I would give you some account of this country. I made the same promise to many other friends; but I have not yet fulfilled it in many instances, on account of the political situation of this country; which I thought could not last long; but which as long as it does last, throws a very dark cloud over a country, which is certainly possessed of many natural advantages, unknown to any new country in the United States. The general aspect of it however, is by no means inviting; and, indeed, is peculiarly calculated to excite the disgust of a native of Kentucky. Instead of woods, variegated and enlivened by a wonderful variety of timber, one vast, uninterrupted fameness spreads over all the up-land country, from the sea to Fort St. Stephens. Immense pine barrens, stretch themselves in every direction. Yet, there is a majesty in the pine, and an elegance in the open green lawn, which appears at this season of the year, after the burning of the woods, together with such a beauty and variety in the flowery shrubs, which adorn the banks of the deep, clear rivulets, which pass every where through the country,—that the mind, notwithstanding the general uniformity, cannot help being frequently impressed with the mixed sublimity and beauty of the scene. But the most important circumstance is, that these poor pine woods afford an inexhaustible range for hogs and cattle; which neither in winter nor summer, are attended with any expense to the owner, but that of occasionally keeping them together. Yet, you would scarcely believe it; but it is a real fact, nothing is more common, than for a man who has 500 cows, to be destitute of both milk and butter for the use of his family, and rather than take the pains of providing a little hay or fodder for their cows in winter, they turn their calves out with them into the range, and send to New-Orleans for coffee and sugar as a substitute, though they have neither cream nor butter to render this beverage agreeable. We want New-England farmers, who understand cheese-making, or rather, perhaps, the cheese-makers of Switzerland, who might certainly soon make a handsome fortune.

"Kentucky has often been said to be the best poor man's country. I think so still. But this is a much better rich man's country; it is a much better country for a man who has half a dozen good working hands. He can get cash for what he raises. Corn sells at from 50 to 75 cents per bushel at this time. Pork, out of the woods, usually sells at 6 dollars per hundred, and cotton is now selling at 4 dollars per hundred in the seed, notwithstanding the duties of 12 per cent. demanded at Mobile, and the charges of sending it to Orleans. And though I have only spoken of pine barrens, yet, there are very valuable rich river bottoms; and above Fort St. Stephens, for forty miles, a very considerable intermixture of good up-land, (as I am well informed,) which is tolerably rich, well watered and fruitful, and selling at 2 dollars per acre.

"But we are harassed by the Spaniards. Since the Marquis de Casa Calvo and the other Spanish officers have been ordered out of Louisiana; he and Governor Folck, and Morales, have all retired at Mobile, (about forty miles South of this place,) and have determined to wreak their vengeance on us, the poor defenceless people of Washington county. They know that we want sugar, and rum, and flour, and tea, and coffee; and they have therefore determined, that no vessel shall go up the river; and several accordingly, with provisions for the troops, and supplies for the people, have been stopped at Mobile and forced to return to Orleans.

"They know that we have a great deal of cotton on hand, just ready for market; and they have therefore determined, that no vessel shall come down the river, though Governor Folck has been kind as to send us word, that he will buy all our corn and pork. They know that we can march them, if we can act in concert with the rest of the Union, and receive the orders of government; and they have therefore determined, that the Mail boat to New-Orleans shall go no longer; and as to the Post by land, they are aware that they can stop it, and examine the papers whenever they please. I am, however, going to start through the wilderness this evening to New-Orleans, with the Post rider.

"They know that we are at the mercy of the Indians, and have therefore flattered them with presents, sent powder to them, and now it is confidently said, sent Favre, a very influential Spanish agent, into the Choctaw country. Of this, I shall soon know the truth, as I expect to be at Favre's house in five days. We have just left on foot the following solemn league and covenant, and hope it will be generally adopted. Unless it be observed, we shall be destitute of bread.

"Washington County, Mississippi Territory,
March 14, 1806.

"Whereas the officers of his Catholic Majesty at Mobile, have by an unprecedented and arbitrary regulation, interdicted all direct commercial intercourse between this county and New-Orleans,—have, in palpable violation of the treaty between the King of Spain and the United States, stopped and detained vessels bound from New-Orleans to the port of Fort Stoddard, and absolutely prohibited their proceeding to the place of their destination, and have in so doing, prevented those supplies which are necessary to our comfortable subsistence; We, whose names are hereunto subscribed, have mutually covenanted, and do solemnly bind ourselves one to the other, and to all the people of the United States,

"That we will not sell, or in any manner furnish, to any of the subjects of his Catholic Majesty, any corn, pork, beef, or any other provisions, whilst the said arbitrary regulations and restrictions continue in force.

"That we will not buy any merchandise or other articles, of any subject of the King of Spain, or which we have reason to believe have been purchased at, or brought from the town of Mobile.

"That we shall regard any man who holds any commercial intercourse with the subjects of the King of Spain, as indifferent to the welfare of the good people of Washington county, and an enemy to his country.

"And we moreover, hereby call upon our fellow citizens, seriously to reflect, whether after the late open manifestations of hostility on the part of the agents and subjects of the King of Spain, any one owing allegiance to the American Government, will not be guilty of a high crime, in affording them aid and comfort, and justly expose himself to all the pains and penalties of high treason against the United States."

"The Spaniards are evidently making every preparation for war. Governor Folck himself, superintends the building of a block house and battery on Dauphin Island, at the mouth of Mobile Bay. They are about to build others on this side of the town. The old Commandant and his young buxome wife, lie every night in the fort, for fear of being torn asunder, by the ruffians of Washington county. The undergrowth has been cleared away all round the town—centinels are kept out for three miles, and a few nights ago, alarmed at the appearance, they fired a platoon at a lighted bug. But the people here, have no idea of disturbing them.

"As to our right to Mobile, no doubt I believe can be entertained about it. As an old settler observed to me a few days ago, there is not even a sensible negro at Mobile, but knows that the Perdido was always considered as the Eastern boundary of Louisiana."

FOR SALE,

270 Acres of LAND,

Called first rate, with several springs of constant water, lying in Bourbon county, four and a half miles below Paris, on Stoner creek, about one third of which is cleared, on which is about 16 acres in timothy grass, a young apple orchard of about 80 trees, which has borne a little; and a large peach orchard of excellent fruit; a water grist mill, horse mill and saw mill; the horse mill on the best construction, with probably the best stones of any H. mill in the State; two pair of stones in the W. grist mill four feet in diameter and heavy, one L. Mill, very good for grinding corn and rye, the other Burrs, which I believe are amongst the best in America, with good country and merchant boulders, rolling screen, flour elevators and hopper boy, wheat elevators not finished—the saw mill in tolerable repair—all said mills have irons of the best kind, the uprights on steel, and saw mill gudgeons and crank in brass boxes, and a fine house for a distillery. The stream Stoner is reputed most durable of any between the Blue Licks and Kentucky river.

Any person wishing to purchase, may know the terms, and other particulars respecting the premises, by applying to the subscriber living thereon.

IMPORTANT.

TO all those who wish either to become citizens or to hold lands in that delightful country south of green river. The subscriber being inclined to remove to Tennessee, offers for sale, the plantation on which he now resides, together with six thousand acres of land, situate on both sides of Red river, and Big Whipperville, including several fine mill seats, and as valuable a body of timber as any on Red river; surrounded by barrens, some of which are equal in quality to any in Logan county; about 90 acres of cleared land, under good fence; a small apple orchard of the best fruit, a peach and cherry orchard, all in full perfection. On the premises is a large and elegant two story Brick House, entirely new, together with other necessary buildings. In point of health and beauty, this situation perhaps is excelled by none in the state of Kentucky. The plantations lay one on the north, the other on the south side of the river, a little below where the two forks unite, and just opposite the confluence of Big Whipperville. Those streams afford water sufficient (the river in particular,) all the year to support a merchant and saw mill. A considerable quantity of the timbered land is fine rich bottom.

The subscriber has also for sale sundry other tracts of land in Logan county, and likewise in Christian county, 1 tract in Livingston county, and one on Cumberland river, Stewart county, (state of Tennessee); he has in one complete tract in Christian 15,000 acres, equal perhaps in value, to any tract in that county. It is situate on the main source of Little river, including several miles on both sides of the river, and including some fine mill seats, (this river is a never failing fountain) its situation in part about four miles below the court house, and extends from thence southwardly down the main river and the Sinking fork of said river, the distance of five miles (or more perhaps). The subscriber has also another tract of Land, lying on the South side of Little River, about eight or ten miles from Cumberland River, consisting of 7800 acres, part well timbered, the remainder good level barrens. This and the other last mentioned tract, has a number of fine springs on them, and are both well calculated to form a settlement for a number of families. The former is sufficient to make a settlement for 20 families; the latter is sufficient to make 8 or 10 farms, and good settlements. The subscriber has for sale, sundry other smaller tracts in Christian, all or any of which, he will sell upon terms perhaps more moderate than any such lands have been sold for many years past. [The summer range in all this country, is equal to any in the universe.] Indisputable titles will be made to the purchasers. For terms and further information, apply to the subscriber at his plantation, about 12 miles South of Russellville. Letters addressed to the subscriber, (post paid) and left in the post-office at Russellville, will be duly attended to, and answered through the medium of the mail. If part of the purchase money be paid in advance, a considerable indulgence will be given for the remainder.

FOR SALE,

ON the left hand side of the three forks as you go up the Kentucky, and at their junction. This land runs along the river three miles, and nine miles back. The bottoms are rich land; the ridges are capable of producing wheat, and other small grain. The pasturage is excellent for raising stock of all kinds, as it has a plenty of cane brakes, and peavines. All along the river is the sugar tree, wild cherry, and other woods common to this country. When you go back some distance, is the pine; which produces tar, turpentine, pitch and rosin; which will finally be valuable, independent of the wood that is upon the land. There is also a rock close to low water mark; that when the water is very low, shows clear salt upon its surface; and the rock itself tastes salt. There has been three water-witches (as they call them,) trying the experiment, and say, there is four feet square of very salt water at the top of the bank, which is not an hundred feet from the water; and close to it a very easy ascending hill, for several miles; and also the wood along the river. A coal bank within three hundred yards. There is also five valuable coal banks, which are near the river, with easy access to them. A coal yard and boat yard; and it is said, several salt-petre caves. The bottoms and along the creeks would produce good cotton or hemp. Lexington alone, independent of the country blacksmiths, consumes thirteen thousand bushels per annum. We will suppose Frankfort five thousand, which falls at the landing at one shilling per bushel, and twenty thousand might be sold: this might be made productive by a man of small capital. Independent of these advantages, the mouth of the three forks is the best fishing place in the State. In a small crib they can get five hundred pounds of fish in a day, and may get by a feim, five or seven hundred barrels per annum. Tobacco, flour, beef, pork, tallow, hogs' lard, hemp, cordage, whiskey, or cast iron, will be taken in payment. Part credit will be given. If the whole cannot be sold, a half will be sold, or a third. A clear and indisputable deed will be given. For terms apply to Mr. Wm. Leavy Lexington, or at this office.

Lexington, December 4, 1805.

N. B. There are a number of acres of clear bottom land, and several log houses upon the above lands.
